Slauson Middle School Turns Pink

By Jorge V. Rosales

AZUSA - The Slauson Middle School Panthers became the "Pink Panthers" on Friday, October 21st to join in the National Breast Cancer Awareness Month (NBCAM) campaign.

The National Breast Cancer Awareness Month program is dedicated to increasing public knowledge about the importance of early detection of breast cancer. Fifteen national public service organizations, professional associations, and government agencies comprise the Board of Sponsors, who work together to ensure that the NBCAM message is heard by thousands of women and their families.

"Pink Friday" at Slauson was an event created and carried out by Slauson's Leadership Class. Pink posters, banners, balloons, and streamers lined hallways filled with students dressed in pink. At lunch, students made donations and bought goodies made by the Leadership students and their families. Mayor Joe Rocha and Slauson Middle School students wear pink clothing in support of "Pink Friday" on October 21, in recognition of National Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

Councilperson Robert Gonzalez stopped by at lunch to talk with students and show support for their efforts.

"I am so proud of this group!" said Leadership teacher, Kimball Coburn. "This event was completely student driven and directed. Berlyn Ruiz, Student Council and daughter of Ralph Ruiz, City of Azusa Personnel Board Member, brought the idea to the group and the group responded with creative energy and focus."

Mr. Coburn assigned Berlyn the job of Pink Friday Chairperson. She assigned jobs, coordinated sales with the help of ASB clerk Annette Campos, arranged a guest speaker for the Leadership class, and invited the Mayor and Council Members.

At the end of the day,

Berlyn said, "I wasn't surprised but I was happy that so many people wore pink and donated money.

What motivated Berlyn to create Pink Friday? "Because my aunt got breast cancer," she said, "and I want to be there for her and support her." Others in the class also had loved ones that have dealt with breast cancer and enthusiastically planned a very successful Pink Friday.

West Covina Honored as Enrique Jr. and Mika Camarena Attends Red Ribbon Rally

By George Ogden

WEST COVINA - On Saturday, October 22, the city and West Covina Rotary had their 21st Red Ribbon Rally. They were honored to have Enrique Camarena Jr., and his mom, Mika Camarena (wife of Enrique Kiki Camarena) who attended the event held at West Covina High School.

DEA Agent Enrique "Kiki" Camarena Sr. was killed on Feb. 7, 1985. The 37-year-old Camarena left his office to meet his wife for lunch. Five men appeared at the agent's side and shoved him in a car. One month later, Camarena's body was found in a shallow grave. He had been tortured to death.

With the combined efforts of the City of West Covina's Police and Fire Departments, along with the West Covina Unified School District, the West Covina Rotary Clubs, West Covina Elk's Lodge and a host of other organizations, they treated the community to a free pancake breakfast and a lot of interesting booths and displays.

The Red Ribbon Rally had a number of demonstrations by the first responders with the SWAT Team in action. This included a K-9 Unit doing its job and the fire department using the "Jaws of Life" to remove a victim from a wrecked car. A police helicopter as well as the "high tech" DEA helicopter came to the event. The program focused on awareness and the dangers of drug abuse. Information was made available to everyone who attended.

Thousands of pancakes were served and cooked on the famous Elk's rotating grill. Great entertainment was provided by Future America.

In honor of Camarena's memory and his battle against illegal drugs, friends and neighbors began to wear red badges of satin after his murder. Parents, sick of the destruction of alcohol and other drugs, had begun forming coalitions. Some of these new coalitions took Camarena as their model and embraced his belief that one person can make a difference.

These coalitions also adopted the symbol of Camarena's memory, the red ribbon.

The National Family Partnership organized the first Nationwide Red Ribbon Campaign in 1988. Since that time, the campaign has reached millions of U.S. children.

This was a great educational and entertaining event for everyone.

Slauson Middle School's mascot, black panther, became the "Pink Panther" on Friday, October 21 in recognition of National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Pink ribbon and a pink panther posters were displayed at the school's main entrance.

Elderly Glendora Couple Killed In Auto Accident

The Toyota on the median of Grand Avenue.

By Jayam Rutnam

GLENDORA - Two Glendora residents driving their Toyota Cressida along the 100 block of South Grand Avenue at around 8 a.m. on Friday, October 21, 2011, when all of a sudden the car goes head on hitting a huge tree on the median (center divider) with tremendous force. The accident location was immediately opposite the Foothill Presbyterian Hospital where the victims were later taken. The driver was 85 year old Suk Whang and his passenger was his eighty year old wife, Chung Whang. The Glendora Police Department, the Los Angeles County Fire Department and paramedics arrived at the scene very quickly, only to see the two victims with multiple major injuries, in full cardiac arrest, which means, there was no heartbeat, they did not have a pulse and they were not breathing. They were both given CPR by the paramedics and taken to the Foothill Presbyterian Hospital where they were pronounced dead. The incident is pending an autopsy report giving the cause of death. The possibility is that the driver had a heart attack and his passenger died of blunt force impact.

Duarte Kiwanis Provides Scholarships for Seniors

The Duarte Kiwanis Club received a request for help from Peggy Diamond - the coordinator of the Duarte Senior Center. With so many cuts in various budgets, the local colleges were not longer able to provide various classes for the senior center an no cost - and many of her seniors could not afford the nominal fees on their fixed income. So Peggy contacted the Duarte Kiwanis Club for help. On October 18th, she presented an update on all the various services provided to the community by the Senior Center, and the Duarte Kiwanis Club responded with a check for $500.00 to hopefully be "seed money" for on-going scholarships for seniors in the Duarte Community. For information on joining Duarte Kiwanis or providing a program for the club, contact Dr. Diane Hernandez at drdiane@drhernandez-optometry.com.

Glendora Kiwaniannes Welcome Two New Members

The Glendora Kiwaniannes installed two new members for the 2011-2012 year at an installation ceremony on October 5. Kim Bowen of Glendora and Anna Napoli of Claremont became new members of the club when Becky Summers, Second Vice President, installed and welcomed the new members at the installation ceremony where Cathy Napoli, of Glendora was named 27th President of the organization.

Bowen is a licensed architect who has worked in Houston, Texas; Newport Beach, California and Cambridge, England. She taught architecture at Citrus College and is currently working as an Associate Broker at Coldwell Banker Millennium. She is married to Steve Bowen, D.D. S. The couple has four children. She met Dr. Bowen on the first day of the first year in college at U.C. Irvine when she was 18. She has been involved with Glendora schools PTA, is active at the Glendora United Methodist Church, and is a member of the Citrus Valley Board of Realtors.

"I decided to join the Kiwaniannes because of the great people who are already members. Now that my children are more independent, I have more time to devote to networking, friendship and fun," said Bowen.

Two new members were installed as members of the Glendora Kiwaniannes this month. New members and their sponsors include: Pat Rasmussen sponsor for new member Kim Bowen of Glendora, Cathy Napoli, Kiwanianne President and sponsor for Anna Napoli of Claremont, and Vice President of Membership for the Kiwaniannes, Rebecca Summers.

Napoli came to the United States from Italy when she met and married her husband, Joe. Married for 32 years, the couple has three children. Currently, Napoli works at Claremont McKenna College and is attending the University of La Verne. She has volunteered at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels in Los Angeles, Our Lady of the Assumption Church in Claremont, and with the American Women of the Eastern Province in Saudi Arabia.

"I have seen the Kiwanis fulfilling their mission in my city and in my children's lives through leadership experience. This year I decided to join to help partake in this mission," said Napoli.

The Glendora Kiwaniannes meet the first and third Wednesday of each month at the Glendora Continental Restaurant. Originally chartered in 1984, the club enables members to effectively serve their community through various programs and activities.

Create Halloween Magic On A Shoestring Budget

Clever ways with pumpkins can make decorating your home for Halloween as easy as pie.

Ghoulish ghosts. Wicked witches. Things that go bump in the night. What better way to have a little Halloween fun than to decorate your home for that spooky night?

Halloween decorations can be expensive if you buy them in a store, but don't let that stop you from capturing the spirit. It's easy to create Halloween magic for next to nothing. All it takes is a few beverage cans, terra-cotta pots, pumpkins, some paint and a little imagination.

Here are a few projects from the archives of paintideas.com to help you deck out your home for the Hallow's Eve:

Create a gaggle of ghoulish ghosts. Reclaim a few aluminum beverage cans from your recycling bin and rinse them thoroughly. Flip up the tab on each can so it's upright. After the cans are dry, take them outside and give them a couple of coats of Stops Rust Gloss White spray paint. Make sure you cover the entire surface and let them dry for about 24 hours. Then take a permanent marker or foam paint pen to draw on ghostly faces. Attach a 4X4" piece of thin gauze to each can by draping it over the top and affix a pipe cleaner or piece of yarn through each tab to hang. They're perfect for decorating a porch, entry hall—even your child's room.

Paint a pumpkin. Give a traditional Halloween activity a new twist. Paint a few pumpkins you've picked at the pumpkin patch with a spray paint such as Rust-Oleum Chalk Board Paint. Give them 24 hours to fully cure, and then use chalk to draw pictures or write messages like "Boo," "Go Batty" or "Happy Halloween." Line them up on the steps leading to your front door and you're ready to welcome trick-or-treaters.

Or, purchase minipumpkins and spray paint them with on-trend finishes like Universal Copper Hammered or Oil Rubbed Bronze. Place them in a basket on your dining room table for a sophisticated alternative to the traditional painted pumpkin. The paint will preserve your pumpkins so they last through Thanksgiving.

Pilgrim's landing. Here's a project that can make your Halloween party extra festive and make great placeholders for your Thanksgiving table, too. Gather several inexpensive, 4" terracotta pots and give them a couple of coats of paint, such as Ultra Cover 2X Gloss Black spray paint or Rust-Oleum Chalk Board Paint. After they're completely dry, cut felt circles slightly larger than the opening of the pot and attach them with your hot-glue gun. Then decorate the pots with orange ribbon, candy corn, dried flowers or other seasonal decorations to make festive pilgrims' hats.

Glendora Public Library's 4th Annual Battle Of The Books Is A Huge Success!

GLENDORA - The fourth successful "Battle of the Books" contest took place at the Glendora Public Library on October 13, 2011 in front of a standing-room only house. The competition among the fifteen teams was tense as the questions got more difficult. After 14 rounds and one hour, the winning team was the Book Battlers! Team members Andrew Blunt an 8th grader from Goddard Middle School, Troy Hagemeyer a 7th grader from Sandburg Middle School and Hank Woodington, a 6th grader from Sandburg Middle School, answered the winning question from the book, Sherlock Holmes and the Baker Street Irregulars: The Fall of the Amazing Zalindas: What was the name of the police officer that Wiggins sent flying face down into the street?" Correct answer: Officer Grey. A tie for second place included the teams Cover to Cover and the Snackers. Cover to Cover was comprised of Katie Berg a 7th grader from Sandburg Middle School, Marie-Andre Chinchilla a 7th grader from Sandburg Middle School, and Anna Wilson a 7th grader from Royal Oak Intermediate School. The Snackers was comprised of Chris Arnold an 8th grader from Olive Middle School, Abel Mora an 8th grader from Suzanne Middle School, and Isaiah Mora a 6th grader from Suzanne Middle School.

This event is based on the same idea as the library's Great Trivia Challenge. The difference? Only teens can participate and the questions come from three pre-selected books, Around the World in 100 Days by Gary Blackwood, Into the Firestorm: A Novel of San Francisco, 1906 by Deborah Hopkinson and Sherlock Holmes and the Baker Street Irregulars: The Fall of the Amazing Zalindas by Tracy Mack and Michael Cintrin. A dedicated volunteer committee works for months preparing the 200+ questions on the three books and then spends weeks and weeks fine-tuning them.

The participants represented students across Glendora in grades 6 - 12: Glendora High School, Goddard Middle School, Sandburg Middle School, Royal Oak Intermediate School, Washington Elementary School, Hope Lutheran School, Olive Middle School, Ramona Middle School, Suzanne Middle School, and Homeschool groups including CAVA. Pat Janes, Committee Chairperson remarked, "I am proud of the youth of our community. This is a great way for the community to show support to our teens and their reading efforts." Thank you to everyone that made this event possible for Our Teens!: The Glendora Rotary Club and the Friends Foundation who sponsored the event, our committee members, schools and parents, and special donations from Crestwood Communities, Thom and Sheryl Hill, Norm and Pat Janes, the Stan Deal family, the Dwight Richards family, Joanna LeFave, Deb Schmidt, Jan White, and Bobbi Jefferson.

Cindy Romero, Senior Librarian, Youth Services at the Glendora Public Library, shared, "The goal of 'Battle of the Books' is to promote recreational reading, build reading skills and comprehension, encourage team building skills in teens, and, most of all, to have fun!" Together we grow Community.

Kiwanis Sponsors So Cal All Stars Tournament

Duarte Kiwanis Member and Treasurer, Filippo Fanara, heard the call and responded. One of the local Little League Teams, the So Cal All Stars, had the opportunity to participate in a special 40 city tournament, but they needed a sponsorship.

Filippo and his company, Ciba Real Estate, were able to provide the sponsorship money and the team went on to win the tournament. Just another example of how Kiwanis members are driven to serve our community.

APU Students Washed Cars for Free

Justin Blomgren, APU Student and Residence Hall Director at APU's Trinity Hall takes a break from washing cars for free at Foothill Community Church's parking lot.

By Jorge V. Rosales
AZUSA - Azusa Pacific University students had a FREE CAR WASH as part of their community service program this past Saturday.

The goal was to wash every car in Azusa, said Justin Blomgren, APU Student and Residence Director at Trinity Hall.

No donations were accepted. According to Justin, the objective was to encourage volunteering, giving back to the Azusa community, and to earn Ministry and Service Credits towards graduation requirements.

The free Free Car Wash took place on Saturday, October 22, from 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM at Foothill Community Church, 777 E Alosta Avenue. Blomgren estimated that over 250 cars were washed during the six hour period.

Undersheriff Larry Waldie's Retirement Party: A Celebration And A Reunion

By Joan Schmidt

Recently, I attended the Retirement Party for former Undersheriff Larry Waldie. What a celebration that was! Over 750 came to honor a man who gave 44+ years to the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department and what a career that was! Larry began in the Custody Division in 1967. Through the years, besides custody, he worked at the Transportation Bureau, Research and Development Bureau, and Custody Administration. Station Assignments included Firestone, Norwalk, Lennox, and Walnut, as a Captain. His final assignments included Commander of Custody Administration-1997, Chief (one day!)-1999, Assistant Sheriff from '99-2005, and Undersheriff from 05-09.

The reception was held at the lavish Crown Plaza Hotel. The social hour lasted from 5:30-7:00, either outside on the breezy terrace or inside, enjoying music by a Mariachi band. During this time, I saw many old friends. Retirees included Sheriff Photographer Buddy Fowler and wife Brenda, Commanders Bob Binkley, Ken Brazille, Richard and Lynda Castro. Past Temple Station personnel included Captain Dave Silversparre and Lieutenants, Minh Dinh, Val Rosario and Dominic Valencia. Then a sumptuous dinner followed, including American, Mexican or Chinese cuisine, and ending with a dessert bar. During dinner, we enjoyed listening to Oldies, loud enough to enjoy, but not deafening where you can't hear each other's conversation!

That 750+ people came to Larry's retirement party illustrates how much he is loved, admired and appreciated. Three retired Undersheriffs attended: Jerry Harper, Bill Stonich with wife Barbara and Paul Myron-who traveled from Henderson, NV although Paul's beloved wife Brenda recently passed away. Of course Sheriff Lee and Carol Baca, current Undersheriff Paul and Valerie Tanaka and Assistant Sheriff Cecil Rhambo were present. All the Department Chiefs attended: Region I-Chief Neal Tyler, Region II-Chief and Mrs. James Lopez, Region III- Chief Tom and Janice Laing, Leadership and Training Division-Chief Roberta Abner, Technical Services Division Chief David and Sheryl Betkey, Court Services Division Chief Rich and Nora Barrantes, Detective Division Chief William Mc Sweeney, Custody Operations Division Chief Dennis Burns, and Correctional Services Division Chief Alex Yim.

Retired Undersheriff Bill Stonich was Master of Ceremony. After dinner, he has everyone in stitches with his humor as he traced Larry's life from birth to his outstanding career at the Sheriff's Department. (Larry also served as Mayor of Walnut a few years.) Larry in turn was choked up by the number of attendees. He thanked his wife Charlotte for all of her support throughout his career. Larry introduced his son Larry & wife Margo, daughter Lauren, his brother Fr. Paul, a Catholic priest and his sisters.

On the Display Tables were several awards and plaques. Special presentations were made by Sheriff Lee Baca and Undersheriff Paul Tanaka.

What a wonderful tribute to an outstanding man. Everyone who came shared in his joy. Thank you, Larry for 44+ dedicated years in the Sheriff's Department. Enjoy spending more time with the family and more golf!

Retired Officers Honored at West Covina Council Meeting

By George Ogden

WEST COVINA - At a recent West Covina Council Meeting, the city recognized two recently retired police officers. Officer John Cloud and Corporal Rudy Lopez were honored by Mayor Steve Herfert and presented with accommodations and certificates, and not to forget the "City Tile" as well.

Police Chief Frank Wills presented both with their retirement badge.

Wills talked about Officer Cloud and gave him a lot of accolades and credited him with a lot of help when he (Wills) became Chief for West Covina Police Department.

On Lopez, Wills talked about his contributions to the department including being a Public Information Officer (PIO). Both officers worked the 960 program after their actual retirement date which assisted the department with part-time help.

Mayor Herfert also talked highly about the two officers and how they will be missed by the community, the city and the department.
