

Drug Free Kids Celebrate Red Ribbon Day

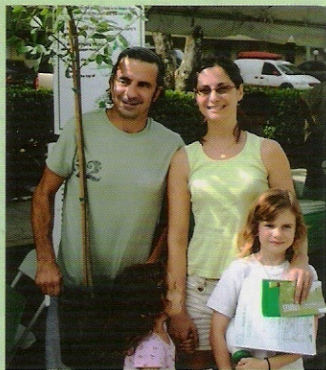

Shouting cheers and carrying banners, students from Treasure Island Elementary School marched through the streets of North Bay Village to pledge their allegiance against drugs. The youngsters paraded from school to City Hall where they read essays, performed rap songs and enjoyed refreshments and raffle prizes. Addressing the students was Commissioner Ray Trujillo, Detective Lisa Gittner and Lt. Brian Collins.

(Above) Students march down Hispanola Avenue. Below: Students carry a Red Ribbon banner and the group assembles in the Commission Chambers

NBV's Conservation Day draws a crowd - see page 4

The Antorena family of North Bay Village take home their free tree provided by Miami-Dade County.

